Dear KRIPA SHANKER ,

On the basis of your performance in the Online Test conducted by the BARC Training Schools in March, 2017, we are pleased to inform you that you have been shortlisted for the Selection Interview stage of the recruitment process of the OCES/DGFS-2017 programmes of the BARC Training Schools leading to a career with the Department of Atomic Energy. As per the choice exercised by you to book your Interview slot on the website <http://www.barconlineexam.in>, your Selection Interview is scheduled as follows:

Date of Interview 29/05/2017

Reporting Time 11:00 AM

Venue where Candidate must report: Multipurpose Hall, BARC Training School Hostel, Anushaktinagar, Mumbai 400094.

Please note that this call for Selection Interview is provisional and subject to your fulfilling all eligibility requirements of the Selection process as laid down in the advertisement that appeared in Employment News in January, 2017 and on the website <http://www.barconlineexam.in>. You can appear for the Interview even if your final result is not declared. In case you are selected, you should intimate the result as soon as it is declared. If you fail to intimate your result before November 30, 2017 or if your result does not conform to the eligibility criteria, your admission to OCES/DGFS-2017 will stand cancelled.

You are required to report for interview at the BARC Training School Hostel & Guest House, strictly on the date of your Interview and at the reporting time indicated above. Outstation candidates will be reimbursed to-and-fro rail/bus fare (at admissible Government rates) by second/sleeper class or actual fare, whichever is less, from the address (city) mentioned in your application to Mumbai. Please note that if any aspect of your application is found to be factually incorrect or such as to render you ineligible as per the advertisement mentioned earlier, then you will neither be interviewed nor paid Travel Allowance. A limited accommodation, for one day only, on first come first served basis will be made available for one day in the BARC Training School Hostel at nominal payment. Request for advance booking of accommodation will not be entertained. Accommodation for escorts accompanying candidates will be provided, subject to availability, only in the case of candidates with Physical Disability. Interviews of candidates will be held on the same day on which they have been called, although the time for holding the Interview could be even the late evening, depending on the number of candidates to be interviewed on that day in the concerned discipline. Candidates are therefore advised to make their return travel bookings keeping in mind that they may finish their Interview as late as 8:00 p.m.

It is mandatory that when you report for Interview you bring along with you a copy of your net-filled application form (to be downloaded and printed from the website <http://www.barconlineexam.in>), originals as well as attested photo-copies (1 set) of all certificates and mark-sheets starting from Class X onwards leading up to BE /

BTech / BSc(Engg) / MSc / MTech , two passport size photographs, a photo identity card such as college identity card / voter identity card / passport / Aadhaar card / PAN card /driving license, appropriate certificate from a recognised Government authority in case of candidates who have availed age relaxation (candidates belonging to SC/ST/OBC who desire to avail applicable benefits in future should bring valid caste certificate in Central Government format), NOC from their organisation in case of candidates employed by Central / State government units, Public Sector Units or Aided Institutes and any other applicable documents. Candidates failing to bring any of the necessary documents mentioned above, may not be interviewed. Please also bring along a photocopy of your rail / bus tickets which is needed for settlement of your TA.

With Best Wishes,

Human Resource Development Division, BARC, Mumbai
